APPLICANT STATEMENT

Pick out those aspects of your experience or skills that are RELEVANT to this post. Explain how your ability, skills and knowledge match those required for the appointment, where set out, in the person specification. Remember to consider experience in previous employment and relevant experience outside of paid work, such as that gained at home, in the community or through voluntary/leisure/college activities, and to tell us if you have special requirements to attend for the selection process, eg. wheelchair access. Give examples where you can in support of your application.

Please give the names and addresses of two referees who can be consulted regarding your professional ability for the post. One of the referees MUST be your present or most recent employer. If not, we reserve the right to request one. Students should include their college Principal. References will be taken up before an offer of employment is made. These may be requested before interviews.

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

We ask for details of any unspent criminal convictions you may have. If you have an unspent criminal conviction we will look at it in relation to the job you have applied for before making a decision. We will treat it in the strictest confidence. Failure to disclose any 'unspent' or 'spent' (if relevant) convictions may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn. If already appointed, you could be dismissed without notice.

There are specific job categories which are exempt under the provisions of the Act. This means that you must declare 'spent' or 'unspent' convictions for work in these categories. If you are applying for a job in any of the following categories, you MUST disclose all details of any caution or criminal offence.

- Work involving access to children, for example, school based staff, Youth Service etc.
- Work involving the provision of services to persons under the age of 18 which includes social services, care, leisure and recreational facilities and the provision of accommodation
- Work involving the provision of social services to persons:
 - over the age of 65
 - suffering from serious illness or mental disability of any description
 - addicted to alcohol or drugs
 - who have a sensory impairment
 - who are substantially and permanently disabled by illness, injury or congenital deformity

Any information you give will be strictly confidential.

Rehabilitation Periods

The following sentences are deemed as never being 'spent' and MUST be declared:

- imprisonment for life;
- imprisonment, youth custody, detention in a young offender institution, or corrective training for a term exceeding 30 months;
- preventive detention;
- detention during Her Majesty's pleasure or for life or under Section 205(2) or (3) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975, or for a term exceeding 30 months passed under Section 53 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1993 (young offenders convicted of grave crimes), or under the Act of 1975 (detention of children convicted on indictment), or a corresponding court martial punishment;
- custody for life

The following list includes sentences which are subject to rehabilitation under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act :

For a sentence of imprisonment, or youth custody or detention in a young offenders' institution, or corrective training for a term exceeding 6 months but not exceeding 30 months	10 years
For a sentence of imprisonment, or youth custody or detention in a young offenders' institution, or corrective training for a term not exceeding 6 months	7 years
For a sentence of imprisonment of 6 months or less	7 years
For a sentence of Borstal training	7 years
For a fine or other sentence (eg. a community service order) for which no other rehabilitation period is prescribed	5 years
For an absolute discharge	6 months
For a probation order, conditional discharge or bind over, and for fit person orders, supervision orders or care orders under the Children and Young Person Acts (and their equivalents in Scotland)	1 year, or until the order expires (whichever is the longer)
For detention by direction of the Home Secretary: From 6 months to 2.5 years	5 years
For 6 months or less	3 years
For a detention centre order not exceeding 6 months	3 years
For a remand home order, an approved school order, or an attendance order	The period of the order and a further year after the order expires
For a hospital order under the Mental Health Acts	The period of the order plus a further two years after the order expires or five years from the date of conviction, whichever is the longer
